

Ashly Pervis

| | | | |
|---|--|----------------------------------|--------------------|
| Objective | Part-time position during school and full-time position after graduation | | |
| Experience | May 2006-Present | Crafton, Tull & Associates, Inc. | Rogers, AR |
| | Intern / Part-Time Engineer | | |
| | <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Learning how to use AutoCAD, StormCAD, Culvert Master, Flow Master, and Pond Pack.▪ Working in the Municipal Department. | | |
| | 2004-2006 | Bill Eddy's Motorsports | Rogers, AR |
| | Assistant Parts Manager | | |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Refined my people-skills.▪ Helped customers order/purchase the necessary parts for his/her units.▪ Helped with the presentation and organization of the store.▪ Maintained smooth internal operations between the departments. | | | |
| Education | 1999-2003 | Pervis Detailing Service | Pleasant Grove, AR |
| | Trainee/Secretary | | |
| | <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Learned how to read plans.▪ Learned the basic skills for AutoCAD and Microstation.▪ Did basic detailing jobs. | | |
| | 2000-2003 | Arkansas Craft Gallery | Mountain View, AR |
| | Retail | | |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Helped with the presentation and organization of the store.▪ Developed excellent people skills. | | | |
| Interests | 1996-1999 | Bar Steel Service | Sacramento, CA |
| | Trainee/Secretary | | |
| | <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Learned how to print tags and tie them to rebar.▪ Went to job sites to see the operation process.▪ Answered telephones and filed paper work. | | |
| | 2003-Present | University of Arkansas | Fayetteville, AR |
| | <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Receiving my degree in Civil Engineering.▪ Considering pursuing my Masters in Structural Engineering. | | |
| Tips | Learning/Teaching, motocross, computers, basketball, volunteering. | | |
| Tips | If I do decide to pursue my masters in Structural Engineering, I will be looking for a part-time job during this two year period and then a full time job after I receive my masters. If I don't decide to pursue my masters, I will be looking for a full time job after I graduate in May of 2007. | | |